As for the average number of patients, would the County Infirmary revert to the general hospital of the County, the average number of patients would be 120. The County Infirmary has 120 beds, and it is estimated that it would revert to them if the Infirmary was built by private enterprise.

* Paid to the Commissioners of Charitable Bequests, being a legation (paid) to the Infirmary by the late James Ireland.

† The Corporation of Kilkenny granted the site of the Infirmary at the construction of 100 beds, meaning per annum 1000, 1000, the cost of £1. 10s. per annum in the additional ground subsequently obtained, the Corporation.
